The 16th Panzer Division (German: 16. Panzer-Division) was a formation of the German Army in World War II. It was formed in November 1940 from the 16th Infantry Division. A new 16th Panzer Division was formed in 1943 and sent to Italy where it fought. The division played a role in several significant battles, including Stalingrad and Salerno.